

Elizabeth H. Dickinson, Esq., is an Associate Chief Counsel for Drugs in the Food and Drug Administration's Office of Chief Counsel. Liz provides legal advice and litigation support for the Office of the Commissioner and the Center for Drug Evaluation and Research. Her areas of expertise include generic and 505(b)(2) drug approvals, innovator and generic drug exclusivity under the 1984 Hatch-Waxman Amendments and the 2003 Medicare Modernization Act, Orphan Drug Act exclusivity, pediatric exclusivity, and follow-on proteins. Liz received her B.A. in Economics from the University of Massachusetts, and her J.D. from Northeastern University. She was law clerk to the Honorable William B. Bryant of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. Liz has been with FDA since 1994.