Brief Summary of Pertinent Experience (no more than 50 words): From 1987 to 2005 I designed, implemented and monitored over 50 conflict resolution programs in Baltimore City and County Schools, under the recently retired Director, Careen Mayer of Sheppard Pratt Community Educational Programs. I served for many years on a special task force created by Dr. Nancy Grasmick representing BCPS and speaking at many conferences and meetings all over the State. Very first Program Coordinator of a mediation program within Baltimore City Public Schools. For the 03/04 and 04/05 school years I implemented and supervised four elementary school conflict resolution programs per year which were funded by the Crane Foundation.

Specific Areas of Expertise or training topics in Conflict Resolution Education: Designing programs for various school populations, coordinating the programs within the schools and training the on-site coordinators, parents and staff.

Past School Experience Examples: This is just a partial list of the many schools I have implemented Conflict Resolution Programs throughout the many years of providing this service:

George Street Elementary	Northwood Elementary	Pitts/Ashburton Elem./Middle
Garrett Heights Elem.	Sussex Elem.	Edgecomb Circle Elem.
Colgate Elem.	Gwynn Falls Elem.	Hampden Elementary
