

Conflict Resolution Education in Maryland Schools

Form for Trainer/Consultant Resource List

Name of Contact: Cheryl Duckworth

Name of Organization: Inst. for Conflict Analysis and Resolution

Email: Cheryl.duckworth@gmail.com

Fax: none

Brief Summary of Pertinent Experience (no more than 50 words):

I am an experienced, certified global educator and conflict resolution expert completing her PhD in Conflict Analysis and Resolution ICAR. I have published and presented at international conferences on global education and conflict resolution. I have taught writing and literature overseas (with the Peace Corps in Zimbabwe), as well as in various VA high schools and community colleges. I also bring leadership, mediation and facilitation experience through my experience at the Center for International Education's "LearnServe Paraguay" program.

Specific Areas of Expertise or training topics in Conflict Resolution Education:

Specific areas of expertise include the role of identity in conflict, global citizenship and Montessori education.

Past School Experience Examples:

School Service Provided   References with contact information (including phone number and email, if available)

Resume included.

Web link to website and/or other evidence of experience, if appropriate

Publications attached.