

Conflict Resolution Education in Maryland Schools

Form for Trainer/Consultant Resource List

Name of Contact: Phil Catania

Name of Organization (if different from contact):

Address: 1405 North McKinley Road, Arlington, Virginia 22205

Phone: 703-517-3968

Emails: pcatania@philcatania.com; pcatania@excellenceandethics.com

Fax: 540-301-3536

Brief Summary of Pertinent Experience (no more than 50 words):

17 year principal of Mt. Rainier Elementary, a National School of Character and a Model Peace School. Nationally recognized presenter and consultant on character development, creating “Smart and Good Schools”, and reaching the urban learner. Currently the , Director of Leadership for Schools, Institute of Excellence & Ethics, Fayetteville, New York.

Specific Areas of Expertise or training topics in Conflict Resolution Education:

- Development and implementation of specific character-based solutions to character development concerns
- How to develop and implement Life Skill programs in schools and school systems
- Developing strong relationships and powerful connections in developing performance and moral character in urban youth
- Strategies to creating and sustaining a school culture of peace and promise
- Leadership training in developing intentional cultures of excellence

School	Past School Experience Service Provided	References with contact information
1) Institute of Excellence & Ethics	Director of Leadership for Schools	Dr. Matthew Davidson Director and Founder
2) Cohoes Middle School Cohoes, New York,	Character Development/ Parent Participation	John Walko 518-244-2336
3) Upper New York School Districts	Peace Programs/ Character Development	Mel Horowitz 518-244-2356
4) Mt Rainier ES Prince George’s County, MD	Principal, 1988-2005	Dr. Marilyn Moreno Assistant Superintendent 301-567- 7495