Mostly complete Maryland Medicaid data for the years 2005 through 2007. The number of inpatient (IP) episodes were counted for two years following an initial psychiatric hospitalization. Some people have less than 2 years of time so the estimates are most likely underestimates.