Taiwan’s 2010 Metropolitan City Elections: An Assessment of Taiwan’s Politics and a Predictor of Future Elections

John F. Copper*

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. INTRODUCTION
II. THE POLITICAL CONTEXT
III. FORECASTING THE ELECTIONS
IV. THE CANDIDATES AND THE PARTIES’ STRATEGIES
V. THE CAMPAIGN
VI. THE ELECTIONS’ RESULTS
VII. CONCLUSIONS
GLOSSARY

* John F. Copper is the Stanley J. Buckman Professor of International Studies at Rhodes College in Memphis, Tennessee. He is the author of a number of books on Taiwan, including the fifth edition of Taiwan: Nation-State or Province? in 2009 and Taiwan’s Democracy on Trial in 2010.