

Criminal Records Expungement Training for Pro Bono Lawyers - LIVE & ON-LINE TRAININGS

A training program offered by Pro Bono Resource Center of Maryland and The Homeless Persons Representation Project

January 19, 2011, 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 pm
Maryland Bar Center, 520 West Fayette Street, Baltimore, MD 21201

Many of Maryland's citizens are barred from obtaining gainful employment or securing stable housing because of charges on their records that may be eligible for expungement. This FREE training program will be provided to attorneys volunteering to provide pro bono legal assistance to defendants seeking to expunge their criminal records in order to remove these barriers. For more information or to register for training, visit <http://www.probonomd.org/criminal-records-expungement.html> or contact Kiah Elmore of the Pro Bono Resource Center at kelmore@probonomd.org or (410) 837-9379; (800) 396-1274.
