If you are interested in pursuing a clerkship, please submit this Judicial Clerkship Information Form to Rita Jones, Career Development Office (rjones@law.umaryland.edu), Suite 208, no later than April 19, 2013.

Note: You also need to complete the Clerkship Registration Form on Symplicity.

(PLEASE PRINT)

Name ________________________________________________________________

Primary E-mail ________________________________________________________

Primary Phone Number ________________________________________________

Court Preferences: _____________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

Starting Year of Clerkship_____________________________________________

List of Recommenders _________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________