The White House Internship Program
(www.whitehouse.gov/government/wh-intern.html)

Job Search Tips for Capitol Hill and State Legislative Positions

#1: If you are looking for a job on the Hill and are new to the process remember to check out the office profiles on Congress.org for a staff directory. Members of Congress from your state (and/or political party affiliation) may give you preference when seeking interns, aides or other staff positions.

#2: If you are seeking internships or employment at the state legislative level, research positions available with the Maryland Department of Legislative Services and/or individual members of the General Assembly, as some committees and legislators recruit interns independently.
