

UPDATES TO ADVANCE REGISTRATION INFORMATION – SPRING 2010

11/4/09

Course Updates:

Advanced Legal Research will be taught by Kirstin Nelson.

Lawyers and Legal Systems and Their Social Context – Professor Michael Millemann will co-teach with Robert Bowie.

Law and Policy of Emergency Public Health Response will be open to both continuing students and first year. Continuing students will have enrollment priority.

New Course Offering

Advanced Topics in Federal Courts: Federal Common Law and Suing the State and Federal Governments, their Officers and Agencies, in Federal Court (2 credits) (pending Curriculum Committee approval) - taught by Professor Gordon Young. The enrollment limit 25.

Cancelled

Internet Speech – Professors Danielle Citron and Gordon Young

11/3/09

The prerequisite for Women, Leadership & Equality Workshop and Practicum offered in the next academic year 2010-2011 will be Nina Schichor's Gender and Negotiation: Special Topic class this spring 2010.

Correction

Environmental Law Clinic – The correct CRN is 22406 (instead of 24406).

10/29/09

Curriculum Updates

Since the spring schedule was first published in April 2009 several changes in the curriculum have been made. The changes, which are reflected on the Curriculum include:

Elective Course Offerings Added to the Curriculum:

See Curriculum for meeting days/times

<http://www.law.umaryland.edu/academics/program/curriculum/schedules/>

Course descriptions for these and all courses may be found on the online Course Catalog

<http://www.law.umaryland.edu/academics/program/curriculum/catalog/>

Alternative Methods of Dispute Resolution - Neil Dilloff

Business Law Workshop – TBA

Gender and Negotiation: Special Topic – Nina Schichor

Introduction to the Chinese Legal System Seminar – Daniel Mitterhoff

Law and Public Leadership for Social Change Seminar – Mickey Edwards

Writing in Law Practice: Advanced Appellate Advocacy – Andrew Baida

Other Course Changes:

Bioethics Seminar/Course, Leslie Meltzer Henry (formerly Health Law Seminar: Bioethics) will be offered as a 3 credit seminar and a 2 credit course. Both the seminar and course will be open to first year and continuing students. Writing in the seminar will not qualify for cert. The enrollment limits are as follows:

2 credit course: 12 student limit, 5 spaces reserved for first years

3 credit seminar: 8 student limit, 5 spaces reserved for first years

Environmental Law Seminar: Federal Public Lands and Resources Law will be co-taught by Williams Sinclair and Timothy Sullivan

Environmental Law Seminar: International Environmental Law - instructor to be determined (instead of Gravallesse/Benes).

Government Contracts taught by Matthew Solomson and Chad Miller will be open to continuing and first year students. See updated course description posted online.

International Labor Law: Workers' Rights in the Global Economy Seminar taught by Marley Weiss will be open to continuing and first year students.

Professional Responsibility and Practice: The Rules and Reality will be co-taught by Brenda Bratton Blom and Michael Millemann.

Real Estate Negotiation and Drafting will be co-taught by Gregory Reed and Nicole Lacoste

Teaching Fellow Seminar taught by Susan Hankin and Sherri Lee Keene will be offered as a day course meeting Thursdays 2:10-3:05 pm (instead of twilight meeting 5:25-6:20 pm).

Trial Planning and Advocacy, Evening will be taught by James Maggio.

Writing in Law Practice: Drafting negotiated Agreement will meet Wednesdays 3:15-5:15 in Room 302 (instead of 9:50-11:50 in Room 307).