

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND SCHOOL OF LAW
APPLICATION FOR PARTICIPATION BY LAW STUDENTS IN THE
INTERNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE LAW CLINIC

Spring 2011

Please include the following information with your application: (1) a completed application form; (2) a University of Maryland School of Law Transcript/Grade Report; (3) a current resume; (4) the name of a reference from a member of the faculty of the law school. Submit the application in two ways: 1) a hard copy in the box next to Professor Millemann's office door (Room 338), and 2) an online version to Professor Millemann at mmillem@law.umaryland.edu

Applications must be submitted by 5:00 p.m. on March 31st, although you are encouraged to submit them earlier since you will be interviewed soon after you submit the application. There is an interview schedule on Professor Millemann's office door, Room 338. After you submit your application, sign up for an interview.

1. Name: _____

2. Primary Address: _____

Any other Address: _____

3. Home Phone: _____ Work Phone _____

Other phone number _____

4. All email addresses: _____

5. Graduation Date: _____

6. Please indicate whether you are interested in participating in the clinic's projects in Mexico, Namibia or China. _____

7. Are you or will you be during 2010-11 school year enrolled in any other degree granting programs? If so, identify the program and give the date you expect to receive a degree in the program. _____

8. Have you taken International Law and/or the Comparative Public Policy and Law Reform course? Any other international or comparative law course? Labor Law or International Labor Law: Workers' Rights in the Global Economy Seminar? The Workers Rights Seminar or Workers Rights Seminar: Legal Theory and Practice? A clinic? If yes, please list the course(s), semester or clinic taken, and the grade you received in the course(s). If you plan to take such a course prior to commencement of the clinic, please note that as well.

9. Do you plan to participate in a Journal during the 2010-11 academic year? If so, please list the journal and your position. _____

10. List any foreign travel you have taken, including the country visited, and the dates and purpose of each trip. (Attach separate sheet if necessary)_____

11. Please list all languages other than English that you speak and/or have studied. For each language you have listed, please indicate your level of proficiency in speaking, reading, and writing, and the length of time you have studied or spoken each language. (Attach separate sheet if necessary)_____

12. Would you be willing to participate in language classes in the Fall of 2010?

13. Please list any international education or training you have participated in (e.g., study abroad programs, language or international study programs, schooling outside the United States). (Attach separate sheet if necessary)_____

14. If you have participated in any volunteer and/or leadership activities while in law school, identify the activity and the nature of your participation.

15. If you have participated in a volunteer activity, what has been the most meaningful thing about the experience? The most frustrating thing?

16. What undergraduate and other degree did you receive? _____

17. Are you in regular (i.e., daily, monthly, yearly) contact with residents or citizens of any foreign countries? _____ If so, indicate the most rewarding part of your interaction. _____

18. Please briefly describe your interest and any experience you have had in Mexico, Namibia and/or China. Focus on any prior direct exposure you have had to the country, the impact of that experience, and/or other experiences that heightened your interest. Include any particular knowledge you have acquired about the country, as well as your insights about the country's legal or political issues.

19. Please list the last three books you have read.

20. If things develop as planned, what kind of work will you do upon graduation from law school?

21. What is the main motivating factor behind that choice?

22. Essay

Please write and attach a 400-500 word essay describing your educational objectives and reasons for wanting to participate in the International and Comparative Law Clinic. The Committee also is interested in your perception of your strengths in participating in cross cultural situations.

I verify that the statements in the above application and all attachments are true, and authorize the Committee to verify the information contained in my application and attachments, including for the purpose of ascertaining whether I am or have been the subject of a disciplinary proceeding, and to share such information with persons and institutions involved in the International and Comparative Law Clinic Program.

Student signature: _____

Date: _____