Please carefully read and respond to the seven questions in this form. If your answer to any of parts 1 through 7 below is “yes,” please submit a statement with this application explaining the circumstances in full. Applicants have a continuing duty throughout the application, admission, and enrollment process to inform the Office of Admissions of any changes in the information provided in the application to ensure that it remains complete and accurate. The failure to provide honest and accurate answers to the questions posed below may delay your application decision and/or have negative consequences relative to admission or continued enrollment.

1. Have you ever been discharged from any employment or volunteer position, or been discharged from the armed forces, under conditions other than honorable? Yes No
2. Have you ever been subject to disciplinary action (for academic or other reasons) at any college, university, or professional school? This includes, but is not limited to, being dropped, suspended, warned, placed on academic or disciplinary probation, disciplined, expelled, or requested or advised to withdraw. Yes No
3. Are there any disciplinary charges (see above for definition) currently pending or expected to be brought against you? Yes No

For purposes of the next two questions, you should include offenses that resulted in purged, sealed, obliterated, dismissed, expunged, or destroyed records, regardless of whether you have been told that you need not disclose any such event. This includes traffic offenses of all kinds, with the exception of the occasional parking ticket. If you are not sure about the nature or the ultimate disposition of a particular charge, you are advised to make full disclosure, as a subsequent finding that you failed to disclose relevant information could have disqualifying consequences. The failure to disclose an act or event is often more significant, and can lead to more serious consequences, than the act of event itself. Failure to provide truthful answers, or failure to inform the Office of Admissions of any changes to your answers, may have negative consequences relative to admission or continued enrollment.

4. Have you ever been charged with, arrested for, convicted of, pled guilty or nolo contendere to a violation of any law? Yes No
5. Are any charges pending or expected to be brought against you for the violation of any law? Yes No
6. Has your driver's license ever been suspended or revoked? Yes No
7. Have you ever attended a law school? If yes, provide the name of the school and reason for leaving in a separate statement. Yes No
