DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE?
A Launch Your Life Speaker Series

This five-week speaker series reflects the University of Maryland, Baltimore’s commitment to health and well-being in a community of care and support.

If you know someone struggling with mental health and its stigma, let’s talk.

IN YOUR OWN VOICE — DEPRESSION
Oct. 4, Noon-1 p.m.
SMC Campus Center, 349
NAMI’s In Our Own Voice presentations change attitudes, assumptions and stereotypes by describing the reality of living with mental illness. People with mental health conditions share their powerful personal stories in this presentation, and engage with audience members to give them a better understanding of mental health.

TAKE CARE
Oct. 10, Noon-1 p.m.
Lexington Building, Room 2-111
Did you know perinatal depression affects 15-20% in all populations of pregnant and postpartum women? Other statistics show as many as 1 in 7 women are affected and is recommended to get screened at least once during the perinatal period. To learn more and to help support women in your lives join us in this riveting presentation.

LET’S TALK
Oct. 30, Noon-1 p.m.
Lexington Building, Room 3-111
Anyone can struggle with a mental health problem. As a family member or friend, do you sometimes feel helpless to do anything to be supportive? Join the EAP for an open, supportive discussion on how to support a family member of friend struggling with mental health issues. All UMB employees are welcome to attend.

IN YOUR OWN VOICE — BIPOLAR
Oct. 18, Noon-1 p.m.
Lexington Building, Room 3-111
NAMI’s In Our Own Voice adds a critical perspective to the popular understanding of what people with mental illness are like. You will gain understanding that every person with a mental illness can hope for a bright future and will discover how it is possible to live a healthy life with a mental illness.

STRONG WOMEN
Oct. 24, Noon-1 p.m.
SMC Campus Center, 351
Get tips and learn how to prevent depression and anxiety in pregnancy focusing on women in the workplace. Join us in support of mental health and learn about resources and start talking towards a change. Presented by Women’s Mental Health Program.

University Immediate Care will be offering flu vaccines again to UMB employees and students.

Please bring your insurance card and an identification card. We will be unable to administer your flu shot without having your insurance card. If you’d prefer to pay out-of-pocket for the flu shot, the total cost is $93 ($37 vaccine + $56 administration fee).
