16. Résumé: Please submit a Résumé along with your application detailing your education, employment, skills, honors, awards and accomplishments.

V. CHARACTER AND FITNESS

17. Character and Fitness. Please carefully read and respond to the six questions in the application that relate to your Character and Fitness for Admission to the Bar. The failure to provide honest and accurate answers to the questions posed below is very serious, often more significant than the act or event requiring disclosure. For any affirmative answer, please include a statement addressing the date and location (city, town and state) of each incident, a description of the incident, and a full explanation of the circumstances surrounding – and the resolution of – each event. The University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law reserves the right to request additional information from you, including further explanation concerning the incidents in question, court records, documents, or any other relevant information. Applicants have a continuing duty throughout the application, admission, and enrollment process to inform the Admissions Office of any changes in the information provided in the application to ensure that it remains complete and accurate.

- A. Yes No Have you ever been discharged from any employment or volunteer position, or been discharged from the armed forces, under conditions other than honorable?
- B. Yes No Have you ever been subject to disciplinary action (for academic or other reasons) at any college, university, or professional school? This includes, but is not limited to, being dropped, suspended, warned, placed on academic or disciplinary probation, disciplined, expelled, or requested or advised to withdraw.
- C. Yes No Are there any disciplinary charges (see above for definition) currently pending or expected to be brought against you?

For purposes of the next two questions, you should include offenses that resulted in purged, sealed, obliterated, dismissed, expunged, or destroyed records, regardless of whether you have been told that you need not disclose any such event. This includes traffic offenses of all kinds, with the exception of the occasional parking ticket. This information will also be requested by state bar authorities in many states. If you are not sure about the nature or the ultimate disposition of a particular charge, you are advised to make full disclosure, as a subsequent finding that you failed to disclose relevant information could have disqualifying consequences. The failure to disclose an act or event is often more significant, and can lead to more serious consequences, than the act of event itself. Failure to provide truthful answers, or failure to inform the Admissions Office of any changes to your answers, may result in revocation of admission or disciplinary action by the Law School, or denial of permission to practice law by the state in which you seek admission to the bar.

- D. Yes No Have you ever been charged with, arrested for, convicted of, pled guilty or nolo contendere to a violation of any law?
- E. Yes No Are any charges pending or expected to be brought against you for the violation of any law?
- F. Yes No Has your driver's license ever been suspended or revoked?
