

Westminster Burying Ground & Catacombs

Final resting place of Edgar Allan Poe

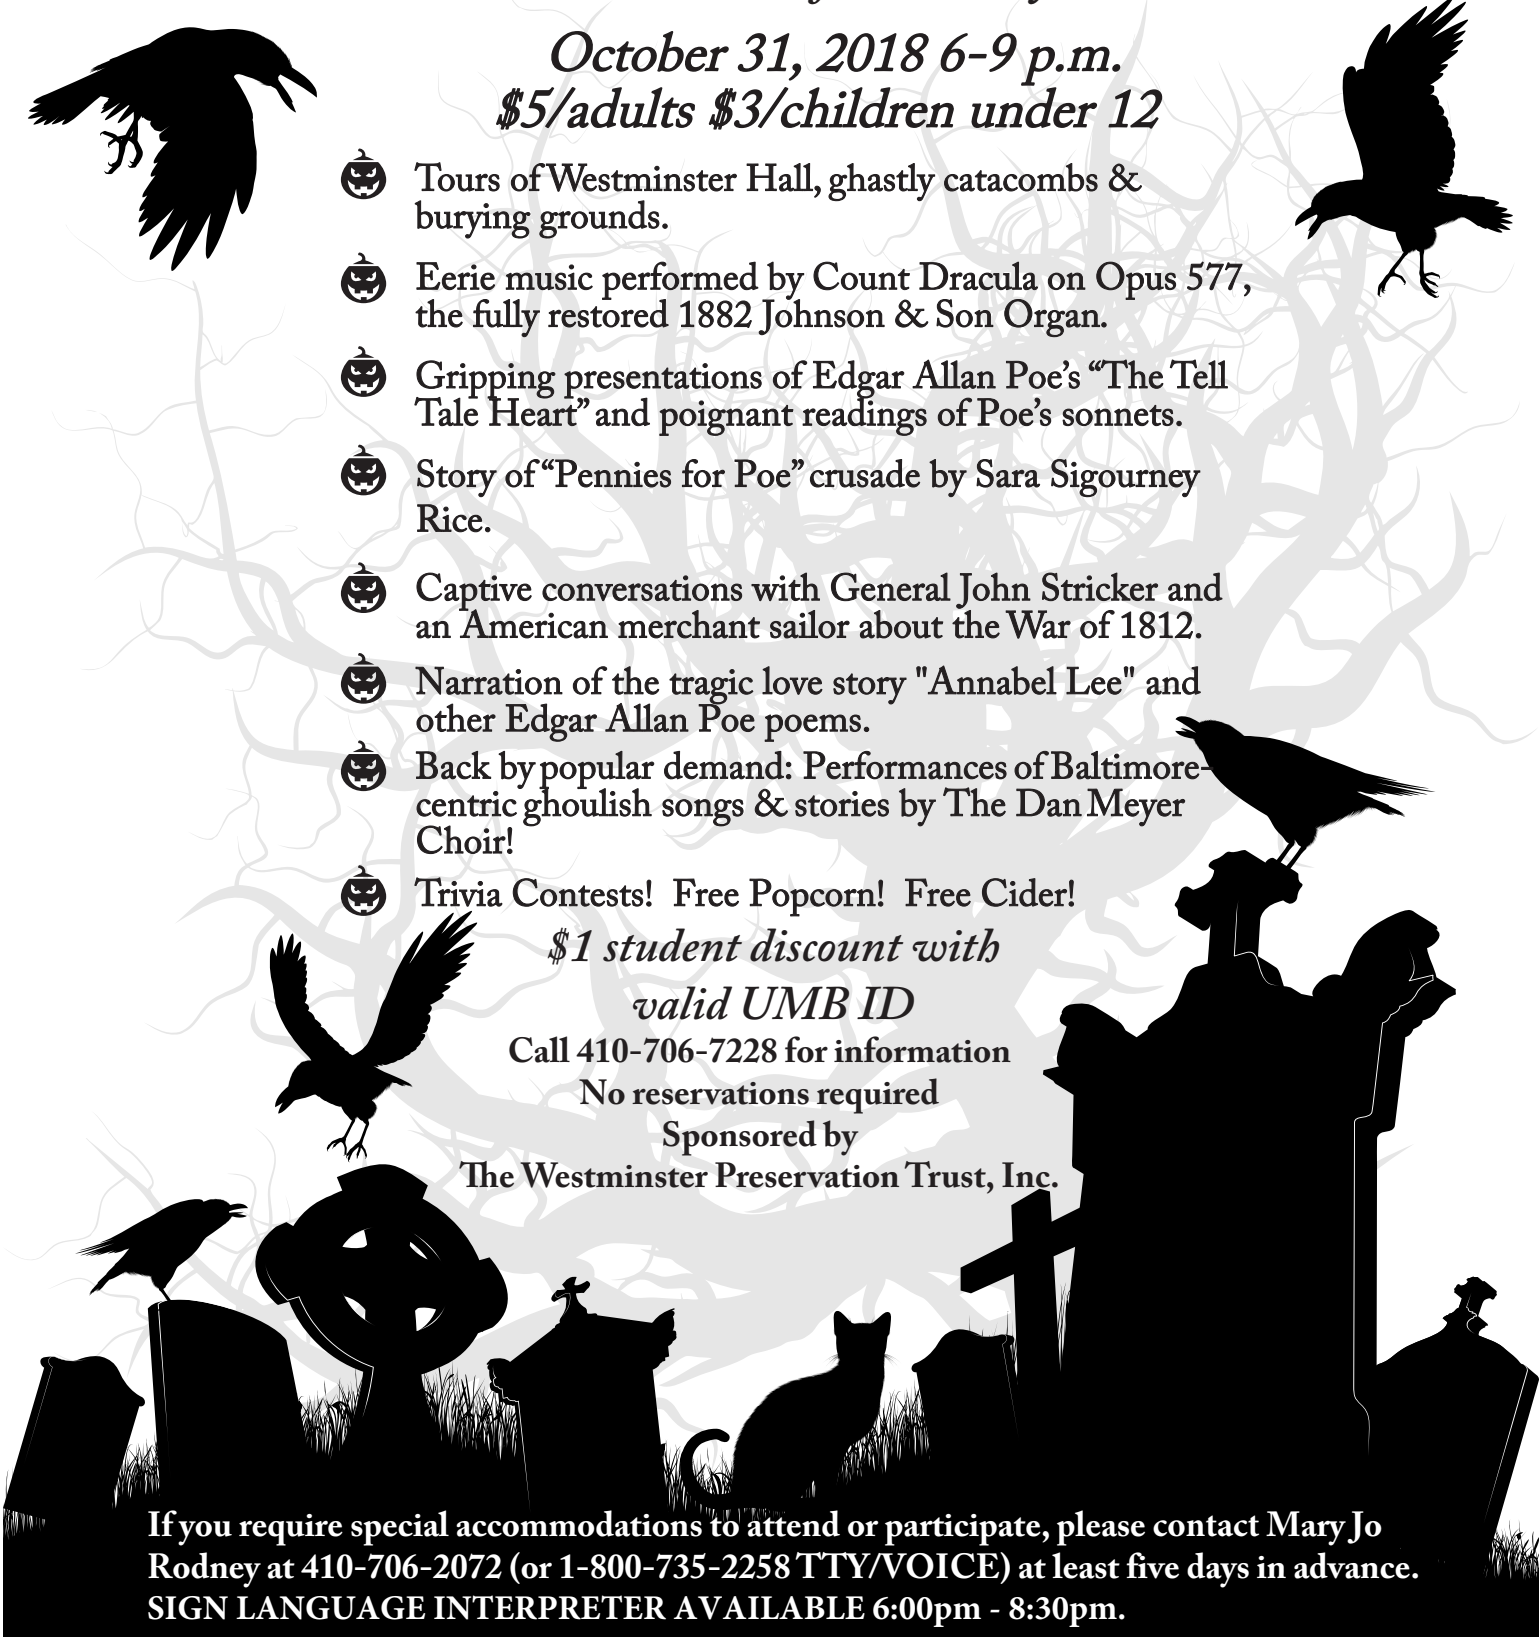

Fayette & Greene Streets in downtown Baltimore

Annual Halloween Tour

A Baltimore tradition for over 30 years!

October 31, 2018 6-9 p.m.

$5/adults $3/children under 12

-
-  Tours of Westminster Hall, ghastly catacombs & burying grounds.
 -  Eerie music performed by Count Dracula on Opus 577, the fully restored 1882 Johnson & Son Organ.
 -  Gripping presentations of Edgar Allan Poe's "The Tell Tale Heart" and poignant readings of Poe's sonnets.
 -  Story of "Pennies for Poe" crusade by Sara Sigourney Rice.
 -  Captive conversations with General John Stricker and an American merchant sailor about the War of 1812.
 -  Narration of the tragic love story "Annabel Lee" and other Edgar Allan Poe poems.
 -  Back by popular demand: Performances of Baltimore-centric ghoulish songs & stories by The Dan Meyer Choir!
 -  Trivia Contests! Free Popcorn! Free Cider!

$1 student discount with valid UMB ID

Call 410-706-7228 for information

No reservations required

Sponsored by

The Westminster Preservation Trust, Inc.

If you require special accommodations to attend or participate, please contact Mary Jo Rodney at 410-706-2072 (or 1-800-735-2258 TTY/VOICE) at least five days in advance.
SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETER AVAILABLE 6:00pm - 8:30pm.