

Environmental Law Diversity Program Scholarship Application

The Environmental Law Diversity Program was created to provide support for scholarships and summer grants for diverse students enrolled at the University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law who have demonstrated commitment to working in the field of environmental law. The University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law is committed to diversity and seeks applicants that will be able to make unique contributions to the character of the Law School's educational and social environment and ultimately to the legal field after graduation. All Environmental Diversity Scholars will be expected to contribute to a culture of inclusion at the Law School and in the legal community. Applicants will be assessed as to the diversity they bring to the environmental law field, demonstrated interest in pursuing environmental law after graduation, and their qualifications as law students and professionals. This Scholarship(s) awarded are funded through the EIP Environmental Diversity Fund. <https://www.law.umaryland.edu/Programs-and-Impact/Environmental-Law/Environmental-Diversity-Program>
